MR. SHERMAN REPEATS DENIAL.

Never Had Any Personal Interest of Any Kind in Any Indian Contract.

HAMON TESTIFIES AT THE INQUIRY.

Cenies that He Ever Mentioned Vice-President Sherman, Senator Curtis or Congressman McGuire as Being "interested" in Any Odahoma Indian Land Deals-Mr. Hamon Tells of Eusiness Transactions.

Big Moose, N. Y., Aug. 5—Vice Pressident Sherman, who last night declared the charges made by Senator Gore at Muskogee yesterday to be absolutely without the slightest shadow of foundation, today made the following statement recognition.

That he ever mentioned Vice Pressident Sherman Senator Charles Curtis lowing further statement regarding the testimony brought out in the In-dian land contract investigation, in hich his name was mentioned:

"I never heard my name mentioned in connection with the contracts which were the subject of Senator Gore's testimony yesterday. I never had any interest of any kind in Indian contracts other than the interest I have for years had in the welfare of the Indians and which I shall ever have no personal interest. I mean. The story, so far as my name is concerned, is without any foundation whatever. If any person has said that I have any personal interest in this or any other Indian contract, he has stated what was not true."

INQUIRY SIMMERS DOWN TO MASS OF DENIALS Jacob L. Hamon Before National House Committee of Inquiry.

Muskogee, Okla., Aug. 5,—With United States Senator Thomas P. Gore re-asserting his charge that he was offered a bribe of $25,000 or $50,-000 to influence his action in congress and with Jacob L. Hamon, accused by the senator of having offered the bribe, denying he ever did any such thing, the investigation of the Oklahams Indian land deals by a commit-

Hamon, accoused by the senator of having offered the bribe, denving he ever did any such thing, the investigation of the Oklahoma Indian land deals by a committee of the national house of representatives simmered down today to a mass of denials.

Talks About the McMurray Contracts

For four hours Hamon, former chairman of the Oklahoma republican state committee, theired a series of denials relative to his alleged relation with what are known as the McMurray contracts, by which, according to Senator Gore, $2,000,000, or ten per cent. of $13,000,000 to the realied from the sale of Indian lands to a New York syndicine was to be diverted from the formal products of the shape of "autorneys" feet.

Hamon also answered Congressman C. E. Greager with a denial. Answering the witness, Congress-man E. W. Saunders, a member of the committee, said:

"Now, Mr. Hamon, you have denied the witnesses which he witnesses which have generally to all the witnesses who day to a mass of denials that a conspiracy had been entered into grossly to mistor proceeded you. It would appear from your denials that a conspiracy had been entered into grossly to mistor government from your denials that a conspiracy had been entered into grossly to mistor proceed you. How do you account for that?

"That's beyond my power of conjecture." replied Hamon. "I never had one penny's interest in the McMurray contracts and never offered a bribe to anyone."

Asked to explain some of the business dealings which he said he had had another fight, in which he was also victorious. He blamed Professor Nugent for not authorizing the residence of Prof. Paul C. Nugent the testing to the Respond provered into grossly to mistor of conjecture." The form the McMurray contracts and never offered a bribe to all the witnesses who had never of the dean's was well battered.

The residence of Prof. Paul C. Nugent the two leads also victorious. He blamed Professor Nugent for not authorizating the residence of Prof. Paul Hamon also answered Congressman E. Creager with a denial. Answering the congressman's charge that amon suggested that an "interest" the contracts might be available the congressman if the latter liped remove opposition to congressmal approval. Hamon testified: eional approval. Hamon testified:

"It was just this way: I was down here in Oklahoma, attending to my business, when a friend told me that Creager had said I had approached him improperly in regard to the Mc-Murray contracts. So I hopped on a train and went to Washington. I got hold of Creager and said: 'Look here, you know I never said any such thing.'

"Then Creager said: 'Now, Jack, that certainly was the impression I got—that you suggested I might get an interest in the contracts.'

got—that you suggested I might get an interest in the contracts,

"You Certainly Are Mistaken."

I replied. You certainly are mistaken." Then Creager said: Well, if you say I shouldn't go, I won't go before that investigating committee down at Muskogee and testify that you approached me."

Among Hamon's denials were the following: That he was at any time thousand the said he wanted me to raise the other $5,000 for him from a client of mine."

Bridgeport, Conn., Aug. 5.—A row-boat containing six girls and two young men was overturned off Myrtle Beach, Milford, late this afternoon. Two of the girls and one young man grabbed the overturned boat, the second young man swam ashore, and the five girls were rescued by Charles G. Scalley, night watchman in the local postoffice. The single handed rescue was one of the most exciting examples of pure grit and endurance ever witnessed by any one of the hundreds of spectators who witnessed the near-tragedy.

THE WAY TO LOSE TRADE

The Bulletin has devoted much space in telling advertisers how to increase their trade, but it maynot be impertinent to illustrate how trade is lost. A lady calls in answer to an adv. and buys a $20 cloak after a few week's wear the satin cuffs frayed, the lining dropped below the hem, the binding of the buttonholes wore out. She happened to be a regular customer, but that doesn't matter. She took the cleak back, thinking the seller would be willing to do something about it. The proprietor sent her to the manager, the manager sent her to the buyer, the buyer laid it all to the manufacturer, and there, it rested. Nothing was done to give this customer $20 worth of value for her $20. The proprietor of this store shifted his responsibility, he set the example, manager and buyer could but follow him. He practically told this woman that he did not guarantea his goods, that the manufacturers were not reliable, that she took a chance of losing her money when she bought goods in his store.

It is just such practices as this that drives trade away from home

It is just such practices as this that drives trade away from home merchants, that makes mail order departments profitable to large retail stores in other cities. They say: "It's good, or we make it good;" and they do.

There was a feeling among the members that Congressman & J. Hill of the Fourth district would be a good selection for permanent chairman. Mr. Kenealy expects to announce an acceptance of an invitation in about a week or ten days. No one knew of Mr. Hill's inclinations, so there was no expression of opinion that the congressman would be the presiding officer.

The meeting was a formal one with lots of discussion before and after it on various phases of the political situation. Charles A. Goodwin attended as a committeeman from the Second district. Congressman Tilson was also on hand.

For the ticket headed by Charles A. Goodwin for governor, the single change would be the renomination for comptroller of Thomas D. Bradstreet. There seemed to be unanimity for renomination of Secretary Rogers and Congressman Tilson and the naming of Senator Blakeslee for second place. The name of George E. Hall of Bridgeport, president of the State Bar association, was mentioned for a place on the ticket, but the opinion was also given that as Secretary Rogers will be on the ticket a second place would hardly go to Bridgeport or Fairfield county.
